Module 4 Worksheet (continued)

5. You are using the CARES® Approach to encourage Mr. Omuse to eat more of his dinner. You have connected with him by talking about his daughter’s cooking, assessed his behavior and determined he appeared calm and happy, and responded by helping him with a spoon of rice. But when you do, Mr. Omuse gets very upset. What should you do?

   a) Start the CARES® Approach all over again from the beginning.
   b) Try a spoonful of something different that he might enjoy.
   c) Think about what he is trying to communicate when he gets upset.
   d) All of the above are correct.
   e) Only “a” and “c” are correct.

6. List 2 ways to “share with others” about the person with dementia.

   b)

7. List the 6 steps to the Positive Physical Approach:

   a) ____________________________________________________________
   b) ____________________________________________________________
   c) ____________________________________________________________
   d) ____________________________________________________________
   e) ____________________________________________________________
   f) ____________________________________________________________

8. Take a break. Now we would like you try the Positive Physical Approach and the CARES® Approach with someone you care for. (If you do not currently care for anyone with dementia, try these approaches with a family member or friend.) Then, on the back of this Worksheet or on a separate sheet of paper, write down the following information:

   1) Who did you try the approaches with?
   2) What happened?
